Faculty Fellow for Faculty Development

The Office of the Executive Vice President and Provost is excited to announce that applications are now open for a Faculty Fellow for Faculty Development, reporting to the Associate Provost for Faculty. Applications will be reviewed through May 1, 2021. This would be a 20%-time commitment for the academic year 2022. Fellows are eligible for up to 20% of salary offset plus fringe from the Office of the Provost. Full time faculty members in the clinical or tenure track at or above the rank of associate professor are eligible to apply.

The Provost Faculty Fellow for Faculty Development will focus efforts on strategies to support faculty development on our campus, including but not limited to developing seminars for early and mid-career faculty, DEO development and planning for retirement. There is also an option to participate in policy review and development.

To Apply

Applications are due May 1, 2021 and the successful applicant will be notified by May 15, 2021.

To apply for the Provost Faculty Fellowship, an applicant should submit the following in a single bookmarked PDF:

- Cover letter, including a description of the applicant's contributions and experience with faculty development
- Vision statement related to strategies to enhance faculty development on campus
- Summary curriculum vitae
- Administrative endorsement from applicant's DEO

Required qualifications

- Established record as an effective teacher
- Established record in scholarship

- Strong communication and interpersonal skills

Desired qualifications

- A demonstrated ability to develop and support interdisciplinary project teams
- Involvement in and development of programmatic content
